

LEAD, EXPLORE, ADVOCATE, PLAY,

SAVE THE DATE
June 10th - 22nd 2018

Important Info

ASDB's Camp Leap is geared toward deaf, hard of hearing, and deaf-blind Arizona teens entering grades 8-12 who are ready for leadership, exploration, advocacy and play.

Program fee: $200.

*Limited scholarships available.

Camp Activities Include

- Indoor and outdoor recreational activities.
- Self-discovery exercises and team-building.
- Exciting field trips around Tucson, including the University of Arizona, Tucson Saguaros Baseball Club, and Community Outreach Program for the Deaf (COPD).
- Classes on career exploration, workplace skills, and professional growth.

<https://asdb.az.gov/campleap>

*For inquiries about program scholarships or general questions about this camp, contact Jennifer Hensley at: jennifer.hensley@asdb.k12.az.us

Arizona State Schools for the Deaf and the Blind